Why DV-alert?

DV-alert is led by experienced trainers dedicated to reducing violence against women and their children. Our workshops provide a safe space for frontline workers to learn, connect and be empowered to recognise and respond confidently to those in crisis.

What will I learn?

In attending our 1-day Men who use Violence workshop, you'll learn how to:

RECOGNISE the presentation of men who use violence

RESPOND safely

REFER appropriately

- Improve your ability to recognise and respond to men who you suspect may be using violence at home.
- Gain skills to enable you to respond safely when faced with men who you suspect may be using violence at home.

Who is it for?

This workshop is for frontline workers and volunteers in Australia, including those in the health, allied health, education, childcare or community sectors who have completed one of the accredited DV-alert streams.

Cost

DV-alert training is funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services. It is free for frontline workers.
