

AUCTION OF RARE/UNUSUAL/COLLECTIBLE BOOKS
AT LIFELINE BOOK FAIR, JULY 17 – 20, 2025

Bids will be accepted from 9.00am Tuesday 15 July 2025. All auction books will be available for inspection at the Bookfair from 9am on Thursday July 17. Bids may be registered until midday on Sunday July 20. Successful bidders will be notified shortly hereafter, provided the reserve price has been met. The winning bids will be published on the Lifeline website within two weeks of the auction.

THE FOLLOWING TITLES LISTED ALPHABETICALLY WILL BE AUCTIONED:

- 1. A Letter, of Genteel and Moral Advice to a Young Lady: Being a System of Rules and Information; Digested into a New and Familiar Method, to Qualify the Fair Sex to be Useful, and Happy in Every Scene of Life. 1766
The eighth edition, carefully revised, corrected, and enlarged by the author Wetenhall Wilkes
Publisher L Hawes, C Clarke & R Collins in Pater-Noster Row.
- 2. A Midsummer Night's Dream 1988
William Shakespeare. Illustrated by Arthur Rackham
Publisher William Heinemann
A beautiful edition with Rackham's captivating illustrations. Condition fine.
- 3. Adam and Atoms The story of the Warburton Aborigines 1957
William Grayden
Publisher William Grayden
Grayden was a politician for state and federal parliaments for over 6 decades, obviously a man of high principles and unflagging in his support of the Aboriginal people of the Warburton Ranges.
From the day in 1956 that notice was published in the Western Australian that Britain would drop an atomic bomb at Maralinga, this author worked to ensure the welfare of the native residents -alas, to little avail.
Inserted in the book is a typed letter, signed by Grayden, which pleads "PS: I would appreciate it if, when you have read this book, you would pass it on to your neighbour or to others who may be vitally interested in the native problem".
The battles fought by Grayden are eerily reminiscent of those of more recent decades. At the moment, Grayden is still alive, at 104.
Dust jacket, tight and square.

4. Alice In Wonderland
Through The Looking Glass and What Alice Found There c1922
Lewis Carroll
Publisher Peter Pauper Press
Two books. These Peter Pauper publications have the much-loved illustrations by Tenniel.
5. Angus & Robertson's History of Australia and New Zealand, for the use of junior students. 1920
Publisher Angus & Robertson. This is an unassuming little book, crammed with facts in small print.
(As an ex-history teacher, I would have faint hopes of arousing young children's curiosity about our past, with this resource.)
6. Art of Pro Hart 1977
Eugene Lumbers
Publisher Rigby, Adelaide
FIRST EDITION, SIGNED AND NUMBERED 600/1100
Hardcover. An excellent copy in the slightly marked cloth-covered slipcase.
7. Art of the Pharaohs 2010
Publisher The American University in Cairo Press. FIRST EDITION
This large format, magnificently illustrated book shows the portraits and monuments that are the artistic masterpieces of antiquity in a new light. It traces the profiles of 34 kings and queens to present an in-depth picture of the history and art of ancient Egypt and its pharaohs. Hardcover, fine condition with dust jacket.
8. Audubon's Birds of America 1991
John James Audubon
Publisher Abbeville Press
All of John James Audubon's brilliant bird engravings are graced by illuminating commentary by Roger Tory Peterson, in a lavish volume. 435 engravings. 900 illustrations, over 470 in full colour.
Very good condition in slipcase.
9. Aussie Moths De Havilland D.H.60 Moths in Australia 1997
Bruce A Winley, Author & Publisher.
The advent of the Gypsy Moth was a revelation, efficient in fuel and low in maintenance, the aircraft made flying a viable option for everyone.
Hardcover. Condition: Very good. Dust Jacket Condition: Very good.
10. Australasia 1879
Alfred R. Wallace
Publisher Edward Stanford, London. FIRST EDITION, very rare. Includes 56 illustrations and 19 maps.
The first serious and scholarly study of the huge area known as Australasia; it is introduced thus:
"The present volume will be devoted to a description of the great insular land - Australia, and of all the archipelagos and island groups which extend almost uninterruptedly from the south-eastern extremity of Asia to more than halfway across the Pacific Ocean...".

It is a thorough treatment of all these areas as they were known at the time, with many maps – geographical, topographical, ethnographical, to the philology and ethnology of the interoceanic races.

Condition good, all maps coloured and folded neatly.

11. Battle of Waterloo 1848

Rev. G. R. Gleig. Publisher John Murray London

This hardcover edition is a treasure for both military history enthusiasts and bibliophiles alike, offering an in-depth exploration of the iconic conflict in a language that is both engaging and accessible. The book's preservation through the years is a testament to its enduring value, making it a remarkable find for collectors and readers interested in the military genre.

This is a rare copy in very good condition for its age.

25. Conrad Martens The Man and His Art 1920

Lionel Lindsay

Publisher Angus & Robertson

33 tipped in plates, 12 Sepia drawings, 15 pencil drawings. Condition good

Lindsay writes: "I saw that here was an artist who had been hampered by the necessity of doing topographical work for a livelihood yet had revealed in half a dozen masterpieces the natural bent of his talent and a rare instinct for his medium.....

It was his fate, happily for us, to be the Pilgrim Father of our art at the Antipodes, and to lay the cornerstone of our Landscape Art."

A neat, tight square volume, in good condition.

26. Court Of Faery - Nymphidias 1906

Michael Drayton

Publisher George Routledge and Sons

With eight photogravures after drawings by Thomas Maybank

This work is very different from Drayton's usual pastoral romanticism, falling into a more light-hearted, rambunctious atmosphere, as Oberon frantically seeks his missing Queen, Mab.

RARE. A nice little volume, with gilt decorations.

27. Cressida Campbell 2022

National Gallery of Australia

Published by National Library of Australia, Parkes, ACT

Cressida Campbell celebrates the career of an exceptional Australian colourist who has worked between painting and printmaking for over forty years. Combining keen observation with formal design, Campbell uses an innovative technique to create woodblock paintings and unique woodcut prints that take direct inspiration from the beauty of the everyday.

This is a massive centenary publication on the design world of the Eames, and it opens up their world to the reader.

35. Ferraris In Australia in the 1950s and 1960s

2017

Barry Farr

Publisher Acorn Press. Limited. FIRST EDITION and NUMBERED 53/299

The first Ferrari in Australia was a 1952 212 Inter Berlinetta, ordered by Bill "Pappy" Lowe, who became Ferrari's first official agent outside Europe and Australia's importer until 1970. By then, 65 Ferraris had arrived in the country, brought in either by Lowe or for motorsport events.

Barry Farr, a Ferrari enthusiast since the mid-1950s and a Ferrari owner himself, has comprehensively researched all the aforementioned 65 Ferraris and has produced this hard cover landscape book detailing their lifetime histories complemented by colour and black/white images. This is a unique historic record presented on quality art paper which would stand proud in any Ferrari enthusiast's library.

Fine condition.

36. Final Speech by the late Rt.Hon. J.B. Chifley, M.P. 1951

Authorised by P.J. Kennelly, on behalf of the Federal Executive, Australian Labor Party, 1951
RARE copy of the speech written on the eve of Chifley's death.

Light on the HILL The Story of a Great Australian 1911

A publication of the NSW Branch of the Australian Labor Party, material prepared by E G Wright and H Peters

FIRST EDITION.

Written just after the death of Ben Chifley, this is a paean of praise to a prime minister who never wavered from his principles. The final admonition in his last speech reads as follows:
"Thank you very much Mr. President, delegates and the Executive. I can only hope that the sincerity which you have shown over the years in victory and defeat won't be lost; that you will be inspired by the same things which inspired the pioneers of this Movement, and that you will not be frightened and made to get over to the "right" because of the whispered word "Communist".

I could not be called a "young radical", but I think if a thing is worth fighting for, no matter what the penalty is, I will fight for the right, and truth and justice will always prevail".

Two books in this lot.

37. First Views of Australia 1788-1825: A History of Early Sydney 1987

Tim McCormick

Published by David Ell, Australia. FIRST EDITION

Beautifully presented volume showing the richest and most diverse collection of early Australian art ever assembled. The first book to comprehensively document and catalogue all known views of the First Settlement in Australia. Important for its artistic value, its invaluable reference guide to identifying, attributing and dating paintings and its historical record of the architecture.

38. Fruits of the Earth 1976

F. Bianchini and F. Corbetta, Illustrations by Marilena Pistoia

Publisher Cassell London

"This lavish volume pays homage to the extraordinarily varied world of fruit and vegetables offering what may well be the most magnificent colour plates created in this field today...

Almost every edible plant is described in its pages, the authors give the origins of approximately 400 plants, and their composition and uses. But the true beauty of the book lies in its spectacular illustrations, each one of which is a work of art, 110 paintings by the famous artist Marilena Pistoia. For the more scientific reader there is an appendix containing the botanical classification and characteristics of each plant.

A handsome volume, dust jacket slightly worn, but internally fine.

39. Happy Christmas 1984

Daphne du Maurier

Published by Century.

A superficially heart-warming little story, with a sting in the tail.

- 40. Hieronymus Bosch 2006
Larry Silver. Publisher Abbeville Press. FIRST EDITION.
The phantasmagorical imagery of this book (d. 1516) has been the source of widespread interest ever since the painter's lifetime, and is still so enigmatic that scholars have theorized that it contains hidden astrological, alchemical, or even heretical meanings. Yet none of these theories have ever seemed to provide an adequate understanding of Bosch's work. Moreover, the considerable professional success that the artist enjoyed in his native Hertogenbosch, not to mention his membership in a traditional religious organization, suggests that he pursued not a sinister secret agenda but simply his personal artistic vision.
- 41. Japan Supernatural: Ghost, Goblins and Monsters: 1700s To Now 2020
Edited by Melanie Eastburn
Published by Art Gallery of New South Wales
Japan Supernatural present 3 centuries of art from the beautiful paintings and woodblock prints of revered masters to monumental contemporary creations.
- 42. Journal and Letters of Lt. Ralph Clark 1787-1792 1981
Edited by Fidlon and Ryan
Australian Documents Library, in Assoc. with The Library of Australian History Pty Ltd Sydney
"Of all the First Fleet Journals that of Marine Lieutenant Ralph Clarke is the most intimate, personal and entertaining. Intimate because Clarke writes of his most lascivious dreams and thoughts. Personal because Clark records more of his own feelings than of the way events affected the new colony. Entertaining because Clark spins his diary entries into a highly readable and continuous narrative." Condition very good.
- 43. Judge Dredd: Casefiles 01: 10th Anniversary Edition 2015
John Wagner; Peter Harris; Pat Mills.
Publisher Rebellion
Ten years ago, Rebellion embarked on the momentous task of collecting every episode of Judge Dredd in chronological order. Today over twenty-five of these trade paperbacks have been published, featuring such classic series as The Apocalypse War, The Judge Child and Necropolis to name but a few.
In celebration of such a landmark anniversary year, this exciting reprint of Case Files One is being issued in hardback for the first time, complete with original colour pages and spreads. Excellent condition.
- 44. Kidnappers Of Space 1953
M.E. Patchett. Publisher Lutterworth Press, London. FIRST EDITION. This is the story of two teenage brothers, Jim and Bob, who are kidnapped by the Golden Men of Mars. Crash landed on the moon, they meet a happy little race of troglodytes, some wraith-like "Zombies", and come face to face with the Wormisaur.
- 45. Lotus The Historic Sports and Racing Cars of Australia 2012
Marc Schagen
Publisher Freshwater Publishing
This is a history of every Lotus sport and racing car that has raced and "lived" in Australia since the first car came here in 1955. Here are many photos which have never been seen before, photos in colour or black and white, many taken by professionals. This book is a culmination of a lifetime hobby of the collection of information on each car.

46. Macquarie's Towns

2010

Ian Jack

Publisher Heritage Council of New South Wales, Land and Property Management.

During his 12 years as Governor, Macquarie played a critical role in expanding and establishing 10 towns in NSW. It is fair to say that Governor Macquarie left a planning legacy which is still evident and highly visible within modern NSW.

Governor Macquarie reshaped the Sydney landscape. In addition to the towns themselves, the historic town plans and maps which date from the earliest days of European settlement provide a fascinating perspective and a visual reminder of how NSW developed as a colony, through the active guidance of Governor Macquarie.

47. Mind And Times of Reg Mombassa

2009

Publisher Harper Collins.

FIRST EDITION, SIGNED and NUMBERED 404/1200. A compelling autobiography illustrated by the legendary Reg Mombassa, co-authored with Murray Waldren.

Also included is a separate catalogue and its original slipcase. The dust cover also folds out to form a poster. Encased in a sleek boarded slipcase, the hardcover beckons with 432 pages of rich storytelling, complemented by Mombassa's distinctive illustrations. This is a rare complete set in like-new condition.

48. Mister Maloga Daniel Matthews and His Maloga Mission

1976

Nancy Cato

Publisher University of Queensland Press. FIRST EDITION.

Daniel Matthews was a rare missionary who cared for the indigenous people as fellow citizens rather than an inferior race. This book by Nancy Cato tells the story of the inspiring success of the mission and the legacy it left. Condition fine.

49. Molesworth's Pocket Book of Engineering Formulae, 27th Edition for Civil, Mechanical and Electrical Engineers.

- 52. Must Australia Fight? 1939
 Ion L Idriess
 Publisher Angus & Robertson. FIRST EDITION
 This book dealt with whether Australia was prepared for invasion. In particular, it focusses on what might happen if the British fleet was not able to come to Australia's assistance.
 Idriess has obviously thought long and hard about the status and future obligations of his country.
- 53. Mutiny in the Bounty and Story of the Pitcairn Islanders 1884
 Alfred McFarland. Publisher J.J. Moore, Sydney
 "To the men of Norfolk Island, I dedicate this account of a Daring Deed, and the Pitcairn Life of their Fathers. Alfred McFarland
 In doing so, I have submitted to the Australian reader a tale of bold enterprises and terrible sufferings; of the impelling motives, acts and fortunes of Fletcher Christian and his mates on waters and isles of the Southern Pacific, of Bligh, their savage villifier, but dauntless leader of the Bounty's Outcasts....
 No wonder this tale was reborn as a film THREE times (1935,1967,1984) with stars like Clark Gable, Marlon Brando, and Anthony Hopkins. It should be noted that the films each have varying degrees of historical accuracy, as has this McFarland account.
 This volume has a degree of foxing on the pages near the covers but is completely legible.
- 54. My Complete Graphics 1980
 John Olsen, introduction by Lou Klepac. Publisher Gryphon Books.

- 74. The Works of Alexander Pope Esq. Vol V111 1765
Being the first of his letters Printed for J.&P. Knapton, Ludgate Street, London
These are long and fulsome epistles, dense in their arguments regarding the meaning and expressions in the literature they have been studying.
- 75. Yves Klein. With The Void, Full Powers 2010
Yves Klein
Published by Hirshhorn/Walker Art Centre. FIRST EDITION
Klein is famous for creating a unique shade of ultramarine blue, which he named International Klein Blue (IKB). This intense colour became a signature of his work and was central to many of his monochrome paintings.
